Micro Project Proposal.
Perform Test Cases for Carrom-Game

1. Aims/Benefits of the Micro-Project:

1. Focus on various factors such as code errors, bugs, completeness, bottlenecks, coherence, and inconsistencies.
2. Game testing also allows the developers to know about the possible risks that will be brought into the market.

2. Course Outcome Addressed:

1. Apply various software testing methods.
2. Prepare test cases for different types and levels of testing.
3. Prepare test plan for an application.
4. Identify bugs to create defect report of given application.

3. Proposed Methodology:

In the above project I created, a chart table of test cases. In which I included some attributes like Test case id, Test case name, Prerequisites, Input data, Steps, Actual result, Expected result, Result.

In the Test case id I have given Id to the test report. After the test case name I have included prerequisites in which what are required terms of test module is provided. In input data I wrote the input to the test. Also written some steps about test case name. And then what is the actual result is written. After that included the expected result. After all the result is pass or fail is given. The test cases we create are not only the point of reference for the QA phase but also to the UAT. Internally test cases are Peer-reviewed within the team.

When a certain situation is not addressed by a test case – the rule of thumb is, it is not going to get tested. So, this is a good place to check whether the test suite we created achieves the 100% test coverage goal or not. To do so, a traceability matrix can be created. Check out all there is to know about the Traceability matrix here.

Tools – Test management tools like QC, Test help us with the test case creation activity. For an example of how test cases can be dealt with using Quality Center, check out this Quality Center tutorial.

Automation tools can be used to create test cases- in which case, they are referred to as, Test scripts.

Micro-Project Report

Perform test case for Carrom-game.

1. Rationale:

In today's software environment writing bug-free code is challenging task, which make software testing important tool to get the quality software. Testing techniques include the process of executing a program or application with the intent of finding software bugs and verifying that the software product is fit for use. Students will learn the way to find bugs by applying types, levels and methods of software testing on applications with effective test planning approach. It also covers manual testing.

2. Aims/Benefits of the Micro-Project:

1. Focus on various factors such as code errors, bugs, completeness, bottlenecks, coherence, and inconsistencies.
2. Game testing also allows the developers to know about the possible risks that will be brought into the market.

3. Course Outcomes Achieved:

1. Apply various software testing methods.
2. Prepare test cases for different types and levels of testing.
3. Prepare test plan for an application.
4. Identify bugs to create defect report of given application.

4.Literature Review:

This paper presents a literature review on Carrom-test driven development. Our findings suggest that there are many lessons learned papers that provide anecdotal evidence about the benefits and issues related to the story test driven development. We categorized these findings into seven themes: cost, time, people, code design, testing tools, what to test and test automation. We analyzed research papers on story test driven development to find out how many of these anecdotal findings were critically examined by researchers and analyzed the gaps in between. The analysis can be used by researchers as a ground for further empirical investigation.

5.Actual Methodologies Followed:

Carrom is an interesting game similar to Billiards or Table Shuffleboard. However, instead of pool cues, you use your fingers and a striker. The game can be played by either two people (singles) or four people (doubles). The game is also known by other names around the world, including carrom, couronne, carum, karam, karom, karum, and finger billiards.
